

Elbert G. "Bub" Luh Jr., 79, of De Soto died Nov. 6, 2018, at SSM Health St. Louis University Hospital. Mr. Luh was a retired computer systems analyst for the Department of Defense and served as vice president of the Federal Employees Union. He went to night school to earn a bachelor's degree from St. Louis University and later graduated from the St. Louis University School of Law. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and a member of Victoria United Methodist Church. Born Sept. 14, 1939, in Victoria, he was the son of the late Gladys Faye (Vaughn) and Elbert G. Luh Sr. He was preceded in death by his wife: Maureen Juann (Green) Luh.

He is survived by four children: Terry (Krystine) Luh of Roy, Utah, Tracey Armstrong of Shawnee, Kan., Todd Luh of Imperial and Troy (Katherine) Luh of Hillsboro; a sister: Eugenie (Ed) Walsh of Marion, Ill.; eight grandchildren: Tyson Luh, Angela Cook, Raquel (Tyler) Klev, Amanda (Frank) Behrens, Brandie Smith, Ryan Luh, Matthew Luh and Keith Luh; and 12 great-grandchildren: Sophie Behrens, Brandon Freeman, Evan Freeman, Taylor Freeman, Bryant Wright, Brandee Wright, Calvin Cook, Carter Cook, Brandon Cook, Bailey Klev, David Klev and Elizabeth Klev.

He was preceded in death by a son-in-law: Alan Armstrong; two sisters: Faye Bratcher and Margaret Lambert; and two grandchildren: Alex Luh and Quinton Wright.

Visitation is scheduled from 4-8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 16, at Dietrich-Mothershead Funeral Home, 220 N. Main St., in De Soto. A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 17, at the funeral home, officiated by Dawn Farris. Burial is in the Hillsboro City Cemetery, followed by a funeral dinner at Victoria United Methodist Church, 5321 Chouteau Ave., in De Soto. Memorials may be made to the Victoria United Methodist Church. Arrangements are under the direction of Dietrich-Mothershead Funeral Home.

